Section 1.3 Other Offices.
Branch or subordinate offices may at any time be established by the Board at any place or places.

Section 1.4 Nonprofit Status.
The Corporation shall be a nonprofit corporation and is not empowered to engage directly or indirectly in any activity, including distribution of its assets upon dissolution, that would invalidate its status as a California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit organization.

Section 1.5 Language.
English shall be the official language of the Corporation. All proceedings, and all materials, shall be in English.

Section 1.6 Specifications.
The specific purpose of the Corporation is to further define standards for, and promote market acceptance of, a next generation flash memory card technology with security methods that prevent unauthorized use or copying and its applications. (now known as Panasonic Corporation) (collectively, the “Initial 3C Members”). The Initial 3C Members were the founding Executive Members of the Corporation. SD-3C, LLC, a limited liability company (“SD-3C, LLC”), has agreed to make certain license rights respecting the Specifications available to all members of the Corporation (each, a “Member”) and others, pursuant to separate license agreements.
The term “Specifications” as used herein shall also apply to such Specifications as are amended, modified or adopted by the Corporation from time to time hereafter in accordance with the terms and requirements of these Bylaws.

Section 1.8 SD Association.

The Corporation shall be authorized, in the sole determination of the Board, to use the common name “SD Association” in its general dealings, and shall be authorized to use any other common name as the Board shall determine. The adoption and usage of any such name or names shall be effected in accordance with the laws of California and any other applicable laws pertaining to the use of fictitious business names.

Section 2.1 Related Entities.

No more than one (1) individual employed by or affiliated with Related Entities (as hereinafter defined) shall be permitted to serve as a director on the Board (a “Director”) at any one time. No more than one (1) entity among Related Entities may hold an Executive Membership at any one time. For avoidance of doubt, any Related Entities may join the Corporation as General Members (as hereinafter defined) and upon joining shall be entitled to all of the rights of General Membership.

For purposes of this section, “Related Entities” shall mean, with respect to an Executive Member, such Executive Member and any corporation, firm, partnership, proprietorship, or other legally recognizable form of business entity, in whatever country organized or resident, that directly or indirectly owns or controls, is owned or controlled by or is in common ownership or control with such Executive Member. For the purpose of this definition, “ownership” shall mean more than fifty percent (50%) beneficial ownership of the equity securities or interests of the legally recognizable entity or the ability to vote more than fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate votes cast at a partner or shareholder meeting (or the ability to control any single class of votes), in each case, only so long as such ownership or voting rights continue. For the purpose of this definition, “control” shall mean the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of such legally recognizable entity, directly or indirectly, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract or otherwise, in each case, only so long as such power continues.
Section 2.2 Conditions of Executive Membership.

The Members who shall have the right to vote in accordance with Section 2.4 below (hereinafter referred to as “Executive Members”), shall be business entities which meet all of the following criteria:

(a) Are actively engaged in the design, development, manufacture or sale of products or services which utilize the Specifications;

(b) Agree to adhere to the Corporation’s Bylaws, its policies and regulations as adopted from time to time (including, without limitation, its Antitrust Policy, its Intellectual Property Policy, and any rules and procedures promulgated by its Technical Committee (as hereinafter defined) or other committees);

(c) Agree to timely and fully pay all membership dues, fees and assessments as are established from time to time by the Board;

(d) Agree to reasonably support the committees and/or working groups of the Corporation, and to take all due steps to ensure that a representative attends meetings of such committees and/or groups as needed;

(e) Agree to publicly support and actively promote the goals and purposes of the Corporation, including the Specifications and their broad industry acceptance and adoption;

(f) Have been approved by the Membership Committee (as hereinafter defined) as having met each of the foregoing criteria; and

(g) Meet such other qualifications and requirements as the Board may from time to time specify in the Corporation’s Membership Agreement.

An Executive Member shall remain in good standing provided all dues, assessments and fees, together with such penalties for late payment as may be determined by the Board, have been paid within the period set by the Board, and the Executive Member continues to meet all of the other requirements of Executive Membership.

Section 2.3 Privileges of Executive Membership.

Each Executive Member in good standing shall be entitled to designate a primary Representative (as hereinafter defined) and alternate Representatives of such Executive Member to vote for the election of directors to the Board as set forth in Section 4.3 below, and on each matter submitted to a vote of the Members, subject to the restrictions in Section 2.1 above and in this paragraph. Such designations or amended designations shall be provided in writing to the President of the Corporation or his or her designee at least five business days prior to any vote of the Members and shall be signed by an authorized representative of such Executive Member. The primary Representative of an Executive Member may, from time to time, remove and/or replace the names of the alternate Representatives of such Executive Member by providing an amended designation of Representatives of such Executive Member to the President of the Corporation or his or her designee signed by the primary Representative of such Executive Member. Each Executive Member may, from time to time, remove and replace its primary Representative by providing an amended designation of Representatives of such Executive Member to the President of the Corporation or his or her designee signed by an authorized representative of such Executive Member. Each Executive Membership shall have only one (1) vote on each matter or election of Directors. Each Executive Member in good standing shall be entitled to attend, or designate one or more of its Representatives, to attend the meetings of the Technical Committee (as hereinafter defined) and such other committees as the Board shall determine from time to time. The right of a Representative of an Executive Member to vote on such committees shall be as set forth herein and in the charters of such committees. Executive Members who fail to be in good standing, as set forth in Section 2.2 above, shall not be entitled to vote on any matter.

Additionally, Executive Members shall have all of the rights under the Nonprofit Corporation Law of the State of California, as amended from time to time (the “Nonprofit Corporation Law”), which are afforded to members of a mutual benefit corporation (as defined in Section 5056 thereof) and shall receive all publications of the Corporation which are intended for regular distribution as may be determined by the Board.

A “Representative” of an Executive Member or nonvoting member shall be an employee, officer, director or consultant of such Executive Member or nonvoting member, as applicable, or of any Subsidiary Participant (as hereinafter defined) of such Executive Member or nonvoting member, as applicable. A “Subsidiary Participant” means, with respect to an Executive Member, any corporation, firm, partnership, proprietorship, or other legally recognizable form of business entity, in whatever country organized or resident, which such Executive Member directly or indirectly owns or controls one hundred percent (100%) of the equity securities or interests of the legally recognizable entity, in each case, only so long as such ownership or voting rights continue and only if such entity has executed a Subsidiary Agreement contemplated by the Corporation’s Membership Agreement. For the purpose of this definition, “control” shall mean the Executive Member’s or nonvoting member’s, as applicable, exclusive power to direct or cause the vote of one hundred percent (100%) of the aggregate votes cast at any partner, member, owner or shareholder meeting of such legally recognizable entity through the ownership of voting shares, by contract or otherwise.

Section 2.4 Conditions of General Membership.

(a) General Membership. Any person or entity (whether corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, firm, natural person, or organization, and including without limitation colleges, universities, and other institutes of higher learning) shall have the right to be a General Member (hereinafter referred to as “General Members”) if such person or entity meets all of the following criteria:

(i) Has a demonstrated interest in the design, development, manufacture or sale of products or services which utilize the Specifications;

(ii) Agrees to adhere to the Corporation’s Bylaws, its policies and regulations as adopted from time to time (including, without limitation, its Antitrust Policy, its Intellectual Property Policy, and any rules and procedures promulgated by its Technical or other Committees);

(iii) Agrees to timely and fully pay all membership dues, fees and assessments as are established from time to time by the Board;

(iv) Agrees to support and promote the goals and purposes of the Corporation, including the Specifications and their broad industry acceptance and adoption; and

(v) Meets such other qualifications and requirements as the Board may from time to time specify in the Corporation’s Membership Agreement.

A General Member shall remain in good standing provided all dues, assessments and fees, together with such penalties for late payment as may be determined by the Board, have been paid within the period set by the Board, and the General Member continues to meet all of the other requirements of General Membership.

Section 2.5 Privileges of General Membership.

(a) Each General Member in good standing shall be entitled to attend, or designate one or more Representatives of such General Member to attend, as an observer and in a non-voting capacity, the meetings of the Technical Committee, Marketing Committee, and such other committees as the Board shall determine from time to time and shall receive all publications of the Corporation which are intended for regular distribution as may be determined by the Board. General Members shall be included in the class of persons referred to in these Bylaws as “nonvoting members.” General Members may not attend Board meetings, including Board committee or Board ad-hoc sub-committee meetings.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, General Members will not be entitled to:

(b) Attend Board meetings, including without limitation Board committee or Board ad-hoc sub-committee meetings, unless, and only to the extent that, a Representative of such General Member has been designated in writing pursuant to Section 2.3 above and is serving as the Director at the request of an Executive Member;

(c) Any voting rights on any committees, working group and or ad-hoc sub-committees, unless, and only to the extent that, a Representative of such General Member has been designated in writing pursuant to Section 2.3 above and is subject to the limitations set forth herein and in the charters of such committees.

(d) Be considered members of a mutual benefit corporation (as defined in Section 5056 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law); or

(e) Be included in the term “Members” under these Bylaws.

Section 2.6 Other Classes of Members.

(a) The Executive Members may create, by adopting an amendment to these Bylaws, one or more other classes of membership in the Corporation and may prescribe the designations, voting rights (if any), powers, privileges and method of selection of members of each such class. Only classes of membership which have voting rights in the Corporation shall be included in the term “Member” under these Bylaws, and classes of membership without voting rights shall be included in the term “nonvoting member.”

Section 2.7 Deprivation or Suspension of Membership.

Any Member or nonvoting member may be deprived of its membership or be suspended for cause by a majority vote of the Board. Cause shall be construed as failing to continue to meet the conditions of Executive Membership under Section 2.2 or the conditions of General Membership under Section 2.4. No deprivation or suspension of membership shall be effective unless:

(a) The Member or nonvoting member is given written notice of the proposed deprivation or suspension of membership and of the reasons therefor;

(b) Such notice is delivered personally or by first class or registered mail sent to the last address of the Member or nonvoting member shown on the Corporation’s records;
(c) Such notice is given at least fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date of the proposed deprivation or suspension of membership; and

(d) Such notice sets forth a procedure, determined by the Membership Committee, to decide whether or not the proposed deprivation or suspension take place whereby the Member or nonvoting member is given the opportunity to be heard by such person or body, either orally or in writing, not less than five (5) days before the effective date of the proposed deprivation or suspension.

Section 2.8 Resignation by Member; Assignment of Membership.

A Member or nonvoting member may resign at any time. Notwithstanding any such resignation, a Member or nonvoting member shall remain fully liable for any outstanding and unpaid obligations to the Corporation for membership dues and assessments which arose during any period prior to the date which is thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such resignation.

No membership in the Corporation, whether Executive Member or General Member, may be assigned without the written approval of the Corporation, and any purported assignment without such written approval shall be null and void.

Section 2.9 Membership List.

The name and address of each Member and nonvoting member shall be contained in a membership list to be maintained at the principal office of the Corporation. Termination of any membership shall be recorded on the list together with the date of such termination. The Members and nonvoting members shall be responsible for apprising the Corporation of all changes of name and address and such other information as may be required by the Nonprofit Corporation Law.

Section 2.10 Levy of Dues, Assessments or Fees.

The Corporation may levy dues, assessments or fees upon its Members and nonvoting members, but a Member or nonvoting member upon learning of any such dues, assessments or fees may (subject to the provisions of Section 2.8) avoid liability therefor by promptly resigning from membership, except where the Member or nonvoting member is, by contract or otherwise, liable for such dues, assessments or fees.

Section 2.11 Membership Committee and Admissions Decisions.

The provisions of this Section 2.11 are subject to any delegation of Membership Committee functions pursuant to Section 5.2.

The Membership Committee shall process applications for membership in the Corporation and shall, in its sole discretion, determine whether an applicant meets the admissions criteria established under Section 2.2 for Executive Membership and Section 2.4 for General Membership. If the Membership Committee determines by majority vote of its members that an applicant meets the admissions criteria under Sections 2.2 and 2.4, as applicable, the applicant will be admitted for the membership for which it qualified. Otherwise, the application will be considered rejected.
ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 3.1 Place and Hour of Meetings.

All meetings of the Members shall be held either at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of California and at such hour as may be designated by the Board in the notice of such meeting or in the waiver of notice thereof.

Section 3.2 Annual Meeting.

The annual meetings of the Members shall be held on such day and at such hour as may be fixed by the Board. In any year in which Directors are elected, the election shall be held at the annual meeting unless the Directors are chosen by written ballot pursuant to Section 3.8 of these Bylaws or in some other manner authorized by the Nonprofit Corporation Law. Any other proper business may be transacted at such annual meeting.

Section 3.3 Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or by Members entitled to cast not less than five percent (5%) of the votes at the meeting.

Upon request by any person or persons entitled to call a special meeting of the Members, the Chairman of the Board, President, Vice President or Secretary shall, within twenty (20) days after receipt of the request, cause notice to be given to the Members entitled to vote at such meeting that a special meeting will be held at a time chosen by the Board, but not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than ninety (90) days after receipt of the request.

Section 3.4 Notice of Meetings or Reports.

(a) Written notice of each annual or special meeting of Members shall be given not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting to each Member entitled to vote thereat; provided, however, that if notice is given by mail, and the notice is not mailed by first-class, registered, or certified mail, that notice shall be given not less than twenty (20) days before the meeting. Such notice shall be given (i) personally or (ii) by mail or other means of written communication, addressed or delivered to each such Member at the mailing address of such Member appearing on the books of the Corporation or given by the Member to the Corporation for the purpose of such notice. If no mailing address appears or is given, notice shall be given either personally or by mail or other means of written communication addressed to the Member at the place where the principal office of the Corporation is located, or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is located. The notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by other means of written communication. An affidavit of giving of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.4(a), executed by the secretary, assistant secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report. If any notice or report addressed to the Member at the address of the Member appearing on the books of the Corporation is returned to the Corporation by the United States Postal Service marked to indicate that the United States Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice or report to the Member at the address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available for the Member upon written demand of the Member at the principal office of the Corporation for a period of one year from the date of the giving of the notice or report to all other Members.

(b) As an alternative to the provision of notice as described in Section 3.4(a) above, notice may be given by “electronic transmission” unless (i) the Corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive notices to the Member by that means or (ii) the inability to so deliver the notices to the Member becomes known to the Secretary, any assistant secretary, the transfer agent, or other person responsible for the giving of the notice. For the purposes of this Section 3.4(b), “electronic transmission” shall mean a communication (a) delivered by (1) facsimile telecommunication or electronic mail when directed to the facsimile number or electronic mail address, respectively, for that recipient on record with the Corporation, (2) posting on an electronic message board or network which the Corporation has designated for those communications, together with a separate notice to the recipient of the posting, which transmission shall be validly delivered upon the later of the posting or delivery of the separate notice thereof, or (3) other means of electronic communication, (b) to a recipient who has provided an unrevoked consent to the use of those means of transmission for communications under or pursuant to this code, and (c) that creates a record that is capable of retention, retrieval, and review, and that may thereafter be rendered into clearly legible tangible form. However, an electronic transmission to an individual Member of the Corporation who is a natural person (and if also an officer or Director of the Corporation, only if communicated to the recipient in that person’s capacity as a Member), is not authorized unless, in addition to satisfying the requirements of this section, the consent to the transmission has been preceded by or includes a clear written statement to the recipient as to (a) any right of the recipient to have the record provided or made available on paper or in non-electronic form, (b) whether the consent applies only to that transmission, to specified categories of communications, or to all communications from the Corporation, and (c) the procedures the recipient must use to withdraw consent.

(c) Each Member is responsible for ensuring that the contact person and his/her contact information provided to the Corporation is correct and complete at all times, including without limitation a valid mailing address and electronic mail address for such contact person.

(d) All such notices shall state the place, the date and the hour of such meeting, and shall state such matters, if any, as may be expressly required by the Nonprofit Corporation Law.

(e) The notice (or a written waiver of notice) must state the general nature of any proposed action by the Members with respect to the following: (i) removing a Director without cause; (ii) filling vacancies on the Board by the Members; (iii) amending the Articles of Incorporation; (iv) approving a contract or transaction in which a Director has a material financial interest; (v) approving the dissolution of the Corporation; or (vi) approving a plan of distribution of assets, other than cash, in liquidation when the Corporation has more than one class of voting membership outstanding. Any actions specified in this Section 3.4(c) shall have a special quorum requirement as more fully described in Section 3.7(c).

(f) The notice of any regular, annual, or special meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given. Notices of any annual meeting of Members shall state those matters which the Board, at the time of the giving of the notice, intends to present for action by the Members, but, except as provided from time to time by the Nonprofit Corporation Law, any proper matter may be presented for action at the meeting, provided the number of Members attending the meeting constitutes a quorum and is empowered to vote upon the matter under Section 3.7 below. Notices of any special meetings shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat and no other business may be transacted except as may from time to time be permitted pursuant to the Nonprofit Corporation Law.
(g) All notices shall be sent by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, or if there be no such officer, or in the case of such officer’s neglect or refusal to act, by any other officer, or by those persons calling the meeting.

(h) The same procedure for the giving of notice shall apply to the giving of any report to Members.

Section 3.5 Adjournment of Meetings.

Any annual or special meeting of the Members, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time for up to forty-five (45) days by the vote of a majority of the Members present, but in the absence of a quorum, no other business may be transacted at such meeting, except as provided in Section 3.7 of these Bylaws.

Section 3.6 Voting.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation and the charters of the committees of the Board or other committees of the Corporation and subject to Sections 2.3 and 7.3 herein, each Executive Member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the Executive Members. Vote may be viva voce or by ballot as determined by the presiding officer of the meeting; provided, however, that elections for Directors must be by ballot upon demand made by an Executive Member at the meeting and before the voting begins.

(b) No Executive Member shall be entitled to cumulate such Member’s votes for any election of Directors.

Section 3.7 Quorum.

(a) Fifty-one percent (51%) of all Executive Members entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Members which was not called to discuss an action enumerated in Section 3.4(e) or Section 10.2(b).

(b) Thirty-four percent (34%) of all Executive Members entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum in any vote on a proposal to modify a specification pursuant to Section 10.2(b).

(c) Eighty percent (80%) of all Executive Members entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Members which was called to discuss an action enumerated in Section 3.4(e) or in Section 10.2(d). Approval of an action of the types set forth in Section 3.4(e) is valid only if the general nature of the action was stated in the notice of meeting (or a written waiver of notice) or if approval is by unanimous vote of all the Executive Members entitled to vote.

(d) If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Executive Members represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on any matter shall be the act of the Executive Members, unless otherwise required by the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of this Corporation or the Nonprofit Corporation Law.

(e) The Executive Members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Executive Members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the Executive Members required to constitute a quorum.
Section 3.8  Action Without Meeting.

(a) Any action which may be taken at any meeting of Executive Members may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if the Corporation distributes a written ballot to every Executive Member entitled to vote on that action, and if (i) the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified in the ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and (ii) the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(b) Ballots shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the Corporation. Ballots shall be delivered either personally or by mail or other means of written communication, addressed to the Executive Members at the address of each such Member appearing on the books of the Corporation or given by the Member for the purpose of receiving notices. If no address appears on the books of the Corporation or has been given to the Corporation, or if ballots are returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable, ballots for such Members shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Nonprofit Corporation Law. All such solicitations shall indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, with respect to ballots other than for the election of directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The solicitation must specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted.

(c) Ballots submitted by electronic transmission may be offered as a substitute for written ballots as long as such electronic transmission is (a) delivered by (1) facsimile telecommunication or electronic mail when directed to the facsimile number or electronic mail address, respectively, which the Corporation has provided from time to time to Members and directors for sending communications to the Corporation, (2) posting on an electronic message board or network which the Corporation has designated for those communications, and which transmission shall be validly delivered upon the posting, or (3) other means of electronic communication, (b) as to which the Corporation has placed in effect reasonable measures to verify that the sender is the Member (in person or by proxy) or director purporting to send the transmission, and (c) that creates a record that is capable of retention, retrieval, and review, and that may thereafter be rendered into clearly legible tangible form.

(d) A written ballot (including an electronic ballot) may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section.

Section 3.9  Proxies.

A Member entitled to vote may only do so in person or, if permitted, by written ballot, and may not exercise any voting rights by proxy.

Section 3.10  Form of Written Ballot.

(a) If the Corporation has one hundred (100) or more Members entitled to vote on a matter at the time a written ballot concerning such matter is solicited, the form of any such written ballot shall afford an opportunity on the form of written ballot to specify a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended, at the time the written ballot is distributed, to be acted upon by such written ballot, and shall provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that where the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith.
(b) In any election of directors, any form of written ballot in which the directors to be voted upon are named therein as candidates and which is marked by an Executive Member “withhold” or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of directors is withheld shall not be voted either for or against the election of a director.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any action taken by the Corporation, but may be the basis for challenging any written ballot.

Section 3.11 Inspectors of Election.

(a) In advance of any meeting of Members, the Board may appoint inspectors of election to act at the meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed, or if any persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, the chairman of any meeting of members may, and on the request of any Member shall, appoint inspectors of election (or persons to replace those who so fail or refuse) at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either one or three. If appointed at a meeting on the request of one or more Members, the majority of Members represented shall determine whether one or three inspectors are to be appointed.

(b) The inspectors of election shall determine the number of Executive Memberships outstanding and the voting power of each, the number represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes or consents, determine when the polls shall close, determine the result and do such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all Members.

(c) The inspectors of election shall perform their duties impartially, in good faith, to the best of their ability and as expeditiously as is practical. If there are three inspectors of election, the decision, act or certificate of a majority is effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all. Any report or certificate made by the inspectors of election is prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Section 3.12 Nomination and Election Procedures.

(a) As to Directors elected by the Executive Members, the Board shall, or if no quorum of the Board exists, the person or persons calling the meeting shall, establish reasonable nomination and election procedures given the nature, size, and operations of the Corporation, including a reasonable means of nominating a person for election as a Director, a reasonable opportunity for a nominee to communicate to the Members the nominee’s qualifications and the reasons for the nominee’s candidacy, a reasonable opportunity for all nominees to solicit votes, and a reasonable opportunity for Members to choose among the nominees. If at any time the Corporation has more than five hundred (500) Members, the Corporation shall comply with the provisions of Sections 7521 through 7523 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law.

(b) Upon written request by any nominee for election to the Board and the payment with such request of the reasonable costs of mailing (including postage), the Corporation shall within ten (10) business days after such request (provided payment has been made) mail to Members, or such portion of them as the nominee may reasonably specify, any material which the nominee may furnish and which is reasonably related to the election; or, in the alternative, and at the option of the Corporation, the Corporation shall within five (5) business days after the request allow the nominee the right to inspect and/or obtain a copy of the record of all Members’ names, addresses and voting rights as provided by Section 8330 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law.
Section 3.13 Order of Business.

The order of business at all meetings of Members shall be as determined by the presiding officer, but the order of business to be followed at any meeting at which a quorum is present may be changed by a vote of the Members.

ARTICLE IV

The term “all Executive Members” as used from time to time throughout these Bylaws shall mean one hundred percent (100%) of all Executive Members of the Corporation who are at such time in good standing, regardless whether such Executive Members are present at any relevant meeting of the Corporation or submit written or electronic votes in any relevant vote of the Corporation.

Section 4.3 Composition of Board of Directors.

Section 4.4 Initial 3C and Legal Successor Board Representatives.

(a) Each Initial 3C Member (while still an Executive Member in good standing) and, provided that its Predecessor (as defined in Section 4.4(c)) shall not have released pursuant to Section 4.4(b) such Predecessor’s right to designate a Director, the Legal Successor, if any, of an Initial 3C Member (while such Legal Successor is still an Executive Member in good standing), shall designate one (1) Director to serve on the Board (each of whom is referred to herein as a “designated Director”). A designated Director must be a Representative of such Executive Member. Each such Initial 3C Member and each such Legal Successor shall also be entitled to designate another Representative of such Executive Member as its Alternate Director (as such term is defined in Section 4.5(a)). Each such Initial 3C Member and each such Legal Successor shall have the option to remove its designated Director (or Alternate Director) and, subject to Sections 4.4(b) and 4.4(c), replace, such Director (or Alternate Director) at any time, with or without cause. No other entity or entities, including the Executive Members or the Board, shall have any right to remove a Director (or Alternate Director) designated pursuant to this Section 4.4 (a) unless such removal is for cause pursuant to Section 4.7(a); in the event of a removal pursuant to Section 4.7(a), the relevant Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor, if it is still an Executive Member in good standing and has not released pursuant to Section 4.4(b) the right to designate a Director, shall designate a different designated Director (or Alternate Director).

The term of office of a designated Director shall be two (2) years, but shall terminate earlier upon the first to occur of (i) the death, disability, resignation, or removal of such Director or (ii) the Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor which had designated such Director either (x) releases pursuant to Section 4.4(b) the right to designate a Director or (y) ceases to be an Executive Member in good standing, however occurring. The term of office of a designated Alternate Director shall be the same as that of the designated Director of the same Executive Member except that any earlier termination due to death, disability, resignation or removal shall instead be based on the death, disability, resignation or removal of such designated Alternate Director. The Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor which originally designated a particular designated Director shall be entitled to fill the vacancy in its designated Director's directorship provided that it is still an Executive Member in good standing and neither such Executive Member nor its Predecessor (if such Executive Member is a Legal Successor) shall have released pursuant to Section 4.4(b) the right to designate a Director. The provisions of this Section 4.4(a) may not be amended except upon the written consent of each of the designated Directors (but not Alternate Directors) then on the Board and representing the Initial 3C Members or their respective Legal Successors.

(b) An Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor may, by written notice to the Corporation (including a statement in an electronic mail message directed to the Corporation, any officer thereof or its Executive Director to the same effect), release its right to designate a Director to serve on the Board. Such release (i) shall be effective when such notice is given to the Corporation (its “effective date”), (ii) shall be irrevocable whether or not expressly made irrevocable by its terms and (iii) shall also apply to and include the right to designate any Alternate Director, whether or not so stated in the notice. Effective July 24, 2018, Toshiba Corporation released its right to designate a Director.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Bylaws to the contrary, the designated Director who is serving on the Board on the effective date of such a release by an Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor shall cease to qualify to serve as a Director as of the effective date of such release; the relevant Initial 3C Member or Legal Successor shall not have the right to fill the resulting vacancy on the Board pursuant to Section 4.4(a); and such resulting vacancy may be filled by the Board or by the Executive Members pursuant to Section 4.8(b) or 4.8(c), respectively, or by the Executive Members in an election at an annual meeting pursuant to Section 4.5; and if such resulting vacancy is not left permanently vacant, the Director from time to time after the effective date of such release who is elected to and holding that directorship shall serve by election and not by designation for all purposes of these Bylaws.

(c) The term “Legal Successor” refers to that entity which is the legal successor in interest to either (i) an Initial 3C Member or (ii) a prior successor of an Initial 3C Member (as applicable its “Predecessor”) pursuant to a merger, acquisition, change of control, or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of its business related to the purpose of the Corporation as stated in section 1.6 of these Bylaws (“Transfer Transaction”), provided that such entity shall have applied for and been admitted as an Executive Member of the Corporation no later than the later of (x) the ninetieth (90th) day after the effective date of such Transfer Transaction; and (y) the one hundred and eightieth (180th) day after the approval of this Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Transfer Admittance Date”). Notwithstanding Section 4.4(a) or any other provision contained in these Bylaws to the contrary, if that entity is not already an Executive Member on the effective date of the closing of such Transfer Transaction, then both the designated Director then serving on the Board and also any Alternate Director who had been designated by such entity’s Predecessor shall cease to qualify to serve as a Director or Alternate Director as of the effective date of the closing of such Transfer Transaction, and the resulting vacancy on the Board may be filled by such entity only after such entity’s admission as an Executive Member which occurs on or before such Transfer Admittance Date. If, however, such entity is not admitted as an Executive Member on or before such Transfer Admittance Date, then such entity shall not have the right to designate a Director under Section 4.4(a) even if it is later admitted as an Executive Member, and the resulting vacancy on the Board may be filled by the Board or by the Executive Members pursuant to Section 4.8(b) or 4.8(c), respectively, or by the Executive Members in an election at an annual meeting pursuant to Section 4.5; and if such resulting vacancy is not left permanently vacant, the Director from time to time after such Transfer Admittance Date who is elected to and holding that directorship shall serve by election and not designation for all purposes of these Bylaws.

Section 4.5 Alternate Directors; Election, Term of Office and Qualifications of Elected Directors.

(a) Each Director shall have an alternate to serve in the capacity of Director in the event of the death, disability, resignation, removal, or absence of the Director; such alternate shall be referred to as an “Alternate Director”. When serving in the capacity of Director, the Alternate Director shall have all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of the Director. Alternate Directors shall be entitled to attend all regular and special meetings of the Board and shall have all rights (including voting rights) of the Director in the absence of the Director.

(b) In the event that the Alternate Director is serving as a director due to the absence of the Director, such Director shall regain all of the rights, privileges and responsibilities of director status upon the termination of his absence. In the event that the Alternate Director is serving as a Director due to the death, disability, resignation, or removal of the Director, the Alternate Director shall immediately become a Director, and the corresponding position of Alternate Director shall become vacant.

(c) The Directors (and their accompanying Alternate Directors) other than those serving by designation pursuant to Section 4.4(a) shall be elected at an annual meeting of Executive Members, by written ballot, electronic ballot or in some other manner authorized by the Nonprofit Corporation Law. Each candidate for a Director position shall run for election with a candidate for the Alternate Director position corresponding to that Director. The provisions of this Section 4.5(c) may not be amended except by a vote of not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of all Executive Members.

(d) The terms of the elected Directors (and their accompanying Alternate Directors) shall be two (2) years or until such Director’s (and the accompanying Alternate Director’s) successor is elected and qualified, or the Executive Members declare such Director’s and/or Alternate Director’s position to be vacant. In the event of the death, disability, resignation, or removal of the Director, the Alternate Director shall become a Director and serve out the remainder his or her predecessor’s term or until his or her own death, disability, resignation, or removal.

(e) Each Director and Alternate Director must be a Representative of an Executive Member in order to be eligible to serve as a Director or Alternate Director. The Executive Member or Subsidiary Participant of such Executive Member employing such Director and Alternate Director must make efforts to use the Specifications as a standard for flash memory cards with security features to prevent unauthorized use or copying.

(f) If a Director or Alternate Director elected by the Executive Members was a Representative of an Executive Member at the time of his or her election to the Board, and subsequently ceases to be a Representative of such Executive Member and becomes a Representative of another Executive Member (which is not a member of a Related Entity with a Representative who is serving as a Director or Alternate Director), then that Director or Alternate Director shall be subject to reconfirmation by the Executive Members, at a meeting of the Executive Members which shall be held no later than the first general meeting of this organization following the event triggering application of this section. If that Director or Alternate Director is not reconfirmed by the Executive Members, that Director or Alternate Director shall automatically be removed from office and the resulting vacancy shall be filled in an election by the Executive Members, at the next meeting of the Executive Members.

(g) If a Director or Alternate Director elected by the Executive Members was a Representative of an Executive Member at the time of his or her election to the Board, and subsequently ceases to be a Representative of such Executive Member and becomes a Representative of a non-member, a General Member or of an Executive Member which is a member of a Related Entity with a Representative who is then currently serving as a Director or Alternate Director, then such Director or Alternate Director who has changed employment shall automatically be removed from office and the resulting vacancy shall be filled in an election by the Executive Members, at a meeting of the Executive Members which shall be held no later than the first general meeting of the Corporation following the event triggering application of this section.

(h) In the event that a Director and the Director’s corresponding Alternate Director is unable to attend a meeting of the Board, the Director shall be entitled to have an observer attend that meeting, provided that the Director has obtained the prior approval of a majority of the Directors then in office. An observer attending at the request of the Director shall have no right to participate or vote at the meeting.

(i) All other provisions of these Bylaws, and procedures relating to Directors, apply equally to the Alternate Directors as to the Directors (when such Alternate Directors are serving as Directors), unless otherwise noted. All references to the Board, and to Directors in general, shall be deemed to include any Alternate Director serving in the capacity of a Director.

Section 4.6 Resignation.

Any Director or Alternate Director may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified in the notice; provided, however, that if the resignation is not to be effective upon receipt of the notice by the Corporation, the Corporation must accept the effective date specified. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Section 4.7 Removal.

(a) The Board may declare vacant the office of a Director or Alternate Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or, in case the Corporation is holding assets in charitable trust, been found by a final order or judgment to have breached any duty arising as a result of Section 7238 of the Nonprofit Corporation Law. In addition, the Board may declare vacant the office of a Director and such Director’s Alternate Director in the event that neither has attended three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled Board meetings.

(b) The Executive Members may remove a Director or Alternate Director without cause by holding a meeting in compliance with the notice provisions of Section 3.4(c) and the quorum requirements of Section 3.7(b), subject to the provisions of Section 4.4.

(c) No reduction of the authorized number of Directors or Alternate Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director or Alternate Director prior to the expiration of such Director’s or Alternate Directors term of office.
Section 4.8  Vacancies.

(a) A vacancy in the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, disability, resignation or removal of any Director or Alternate Director, or if any Director or Alternate Director ceases to qualify to serve as a Director, or if the authorized number of Directors is increased, or if the Executive Members declare vacant the position of any elected Director whose term has expired.

(b) Vacancies on the Board in the position of an elected Director, other than a vacancy created by the removal of a Director or Alternate Director, may be filled by the vote of a majority of the Directors then in office. The term of a Director or Alternate Director so elected shall be the unexpired portion of the term of the Director or Alternate Director, if any, that the Director or Alternate Director so elected is replacing. Any such newly elected Director or Alternate Director must meet all qualifications listed in 4.5(e).

(c) The Executive Members may elect a Director or Alternate Director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the Board, including a vacancy resulting from the removal of a Director or Alternate Director by the Executive Members. Any such newly elected Director or Alternate Director must meet all qualifications listed in 4.5(e).

Section 4.9  Organization Meeting.

Immediately after each annual meeting of Members, the Board shall hold a regular meeting for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business. No notice of such meeting need be given.

Section 4.10  Other Regular Meetings.

In addition to the organization meeting, the Board shall have a minimum of two (2) regular meetings each calendar year. The Board may provide by resolution the time and place for the holding of regular meetings of the Board; provided, however, that if the date so designated falls upon a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time and place on the next succeeding day which is not a legal holiday. No notice of such regular meetings of the Board need be given.

Section 4.11  Calling Meetings.

Regular or special meetings of the Board (other than regular meetings held pursuant to Sections 4.7 and/or 4.8 of these Bylaws) shall be held whenever called by the Chairman of the Board or the President or any two (2) Directors of the Corporation.

Section 4.12  Place of Meetings.

Meetings of the Board shall be held at any place within or without the State of California which may be designated in the notice of the meeting, or, if not stated in the notice or if there is no notice, designated by resolution of the Board. In the absence of such designation, meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation.

Section 4.13  Telephonic Meetings.

Members of the Board may participate in special meetings through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participate in such meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 4.13 constitutes presence in person at such meeting. Directors shall be required to attend regular meetings in person.

Section 4.14 Notice of Special Meetings.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings of the Board shall be delivered personally to each Director, or sent to each Director by first class mail, telephone, telegraph, facsimile, or electronic mail transmission in compliance with Section 3.4(b) above. In case such notice is sent by mail, it shall be deposited in the mail at least four (4) days prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered personally, or by telephone, telegraph, facsimile or electronic mail transmission, it shall be so delivered at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Such notice may be given by the Secretary of the Corporation or by the persons who called said meeting. Such notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting. Notice shall not be necessary if appropriate waivers, consents and/or approvals are filed in accordance with Section 4.15 of these Bylaws.

Section 4.15 Waiver of Notice.

Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who signs a waiver of notice, or a written consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes of the meeting, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such Director. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Directors, or of a committee of Directors, need be specified in any such waiver, consent or approval.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such Directors.

The majority of the total number of Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or the Nonprofit Corporation Law specifically requires a greater number. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting as provided in Section 4.18 of these Bylaws. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Directors to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 9.1 Indemnification by Corporation.

(a) For the purposes of this ARTICLE IX, “agent” means any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; “proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and “expenses” includes without limitation attorneys’ fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification.

(b) The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding.

(c) In the event entitlement to indemnification is required by law to be based upon a determination by the Board or the Members that the agent has met the standards of conduct prescribed by law, the agent may select which body shall, or that both bodies shall, make such determination, and such body shall meet and shall reach a determination on the issue within a reasonable period of time after request for such body to meet is received by the Corporation from the agent.

Section 9.3 Insurance.

The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent’s status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this section.

ARTICLE X

PROCEDURE FOR MODIFICATIONS TO THE SPECIFICATIONS

Section 10.1 Procedures of the Technical Committee.

The following procedures for adopting modifications to the Specifications shall apply:

(a) The Technical Committee shall make a formal written recommendation to all Executive Members and General Members as to proposed amendments or modifications to the Specifications (a “Proposal”).

(b) In making a recommendation as to any Proposal which (i) modifies the Specifications in such a manner as to in any way eliminate, reduce, alter, or modify the backward compatibility of the Specifications, or (ii) modifies the Specifications in such a manner as to in any way alter, modify, reduce, or eliminate the existing security features thereof, the Technical Committee shall specifically identify the Proposal as such to all Executive Members and General Members, and the approval requirement shall be as set forth in Section 10.2(d). In the event that such Proposal does not make any such modifications, the quorum and approval requirement shall be as set forth in Section 3.7(b). The Technical Committee shall be responsible for determining whether the Proposal modifies the Specifications so as to effect backward compatibility or security features.

(c) Following the distribution of the Proposal, there shall be a comment period, of a length to be determined by the Board, during which time all Executive Members and General Members shall have the opportunity to comment on the Proposal.

(d) Following the comment period, the Technical Committee shall have the discretion to modify the Proposal based upon the comments it has received.

(e) If further modifications are made as provided in Section 10.1(d) above, the Technical Committee shall submit the modified Proposal to all Executive Members and General Members for reconsideration as outlined in Sections 10.1(b) through 10.1(e).
Section 10.2  Procedures of the Executive Members.

(a) In the event that the Technical Committee chooses not to make further modifications as provided in Section 10.1(e), then the Executive Members shall vote upon a Proposal by the Technical Committee. The Executive Members must accept or reject the recommendation in its entirety; the Executive Members may not modify or amend the recommendation.

(b) In the event that a majority of the Executive Members vote to adopt the Proposal, the Proposal shall be adopted by the Corporation, subject to the quorum requirement of Section 3.7(b).

(c) In the event that the recommendation fails to obtain a majority of the votes of the Executive Members, the recommendation shall be rejected by the Corporation.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in these Bylaws, no Proposal which (i) modifies the Specifications in such a manner as to in any way eliminate, reduce, alter, or modify the backward compatibility of the Specifications, or (ii) modifies the Specifications in such a manner as to in any way alter, modify, reduce, or eliminate the security features thereof shall be valid for any purpose unless at least eighty percent (80%) of the votes cast by the Executive Members present and voting are cast in the affirmative for the Proposal. An Executive Member purporting to vote “abstain,” “present” or in some other manner expressing an intent not to take a position on the Proposal shall be deemed to be present solely for quorum purposes, but not as casting a vote.

(e) Executive Members may vote on a Proposal via written ballot, ballot submitted by electronic transmission, by voice at a meeting, or through any other means adopted by a resolution of the Board, consistent with the requirements of Article III.

Section 10.3  Amendment to Article X.

No amendment to or modification of this Article X shall be valid unless approved by a vote of not less than eighty percent (80%) of all Executive Members.

Section 10.4  Authority of the Board.

Notwithstanding the provisions and procedures of this ARTICLE X, the Board shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to: (a) endorse and/or comment on any Proposal at any time during the procedures set forth in this ARTICLE X, and (b) request that the Technical Committee revise Proposals and resubmit such modified Proposals to the Executive Members and General Members as provided herein at any time during the procedures set forth in this ARTICLE X. Furthermore, the Board shall have the right to evaluate and modify the procedures in this ARTICLE X and establish and adopt alternate procedures to those procedures set forth in this ARTICLE X; provided that such modifications or alternate procedures are approved pursuant to Section 10.3 above.
